DELIVERY CONSULTANT

A BIT ABOUT ME

I'm a passionate learning facilitator focusing on enabling learners to gain a better understanding of themselves and their potential. I have delivered workshops and coached over 2,000 participants from local and global enterprises and Fortune 500 organisations in both the education and public sector.

MY VALUES

I believe that learning can be fun. I love to add creative ideas to make learning activities unique and interesting. Participants from my workshops often value the highly motivating and engaging learning environment, which encourages active participation, reflection and transformation.

BACKGROUND

I have over 15 years of experience in both the commercial and consumer markets within Fortune 500 and listed organisations. During my role as head of learning and development function, I was responsible for the full spectrum of L&D activities, including planning and execution of training solutions, talent development programmes, succession planning, team building and skills training.

Prior to moving into learning and development, I was a document management & outsourcing consultant, a top-performer with track record of consistently meeting and exceeding targets.

My exposure and diverse background has enabled me to design and deliver appropriate learning interventions and to effectively facilitate individual and team development.
